Therefore, the school expects all educational community members who witness or experience an act of bias, hate, discrimination, or harassment to report these incidents to school administration.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Arbor does not discriminate against qualified individuals due to a disability in its programs, services, or activities. We are committed to providing access and reasonable accommodations to students, faculty and staff with disabilities in compliance with the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and corresponding state and federal law. Under the ADA, anyone who has a physical or mental impairment substantially limiting one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment, is considered a person with a disability. In accordance with the provisions of the ADA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, disabilities may include, but are not necessarily limited to, visual impairment, mobility and orthopedic impairments, hearing impairments, chronic medical conditions, learning disabilities, and psychological disorders. In terms of employment, the law defines a “qualified individual with a disability” as a person who can perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation. Reasonable accommodation is determined on an individual basis depending on an employee's job duties, functional limitations and whether the proposed accommodation will result in undue hardship to the school.

The President/Director of the school is accountable for providing equal access to students, faculty, and staff with disabilities and insuring and enabling them to fully participate in and benefit from all school programs, benefits, services, and activities.

STUDENT/INSTRUCTOR RATIO

One of the guiding principles of the Arbor Way philosophy of education dictates a necessity for individualized access to the instructor. The typical student-instructor ratio for hands on or lecture courses is 14:1. These ratios provide an exceptional opportunity for students to benefit from discussions, exercises, projects, and demonstrations, and get appropriate individual attention from their instructors.

At the end of each term there are typically, about five to seven days reserved for senior students to complete RS -101 Career Planning and to review and take their final examination for LS-101 Anatomy, Physiology, and Pathology. During this time, Junior students are scheduled for Student Clinic, but no lecture classes.

STANDARD GRADING SYSTEM

Course grades are calculated using the course requirements and grade calculation information included in each syllabus. Students are responsible for keeping track of their own assignments completed, quiz scores, exam scores and resulting grades. Student final grades are posted at the end of each course in the Student Information Center located outside the Administrative Offices. At the end of each academic term, students will receive reports of their academic progress in writing. Letter grades and quality point (GPA) are calculated as follows:

80 - 89	B	3.0
70 - 79	C	2.0
60 - 69	D	1.0

- a) Complete each class with a grade average of at least 70%.
- b) Maintain a cumulative attendance rate of at least 90%.
- c) Make up any contact hours missed.

Students who fail to make satisfactory academic or attendance progress will be placed on academic probation.

ACADEMIC/ATTENDANCE PROBATION

If a student fails to demonstrate satisfactory academic/attendance progress, the student will be placed on academic/attendance probation. During the time a student is placed on academic/attendance probation the student must participate in a special directive advising program with the Director of Education to help a student address concerns that are impacting the students academic/attendance performance and to outline a plan for achieving academic success. A student will no longer be on academic/attendance probation when the students cumulative grade average is 70% or higher or when the student has a cumulative attendance rate of 90% or better and has made up all contact hours missed. Academic/attendance suspension/termination is the end result of a pattern of receiving grades that are below the schools standards for good academic standing of 70% or for at

ATTENDANCE

Arbor emphasizes the need for the student to attend classes on a regular and consistent basis in order to develop the skills and attitudes necessary to compete in the highly competitive labor market. Regular attendance is expected of all students. When a student enrolls, the student accepts the responsibility of attending all courses and completing all course work assigned by the instructor. The student whether present or absent from class, are responsible for knowing all of the information presented in the classroom or lab. The student is responsible for initiating any request to makeup work missed because of class absence. Makeup of missed classes does not remove an absence from a student's record. The student is responsible to makeup all hours missed. The student are responsible for all material missed. The school reserves the right to terminate its relationship with a student who incurs excessive absences. Excessive absences is considered to be greater than 10%. Students may be readmitted after attendance violation dismissal, after meeting with the President/Director to establish a a make-up attendance plan.

TARDINESS

Tardiness disrupts the learning environment and is discouraged. Student attendance is documented daily based upon the time present in class. Students who arrive late or leave class early will have those minutes deducted from their attendance. A student is considered tardy when arriving more than 10 minutes late for a scheduled class. A student having four incidence of tardiness will be considered excessive and will result in one contact hour of makeup time.

MAKE-UP WORK

It is important for the student to be present in order to master the core competencies and vital information presented on a daily basis during the program. The student who must miss classroom or clinical time will be held responsible for acquiring any missed information from their peer community members. Arbor recognizes that there are circumstances and events which require students to miss classes, resulting in the need for makeup work. As a result the student is responsible for makeup of all subject material, class time and/or student clinical time missed because of absence corresponding to the total hours missed. Because Arbor believes the purpose of completing work is to help the student learn and be successful, the Director of Education works with the student on the submission of makeup work. The student must initiate contact with the Director of Education to discuss the makeup work in question. The deadline must be prior to the end of the term, or else the student will receive an Incomplete for the class. The student must complete all assigned makeup hours prior to graduation. The student will not be charged for completing makeup work.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY

An incomplete "I" is a temporary grade assigned by an instructor and indicates that additional course work is required to fulfill the requirements of a given course. An "I" is not given to enable a student to do additional work to raise a deficient grade. The student must have a legitimate extenuating circumstance(s), such as a severe illness, that prohibits completion of the course. The instructor will consult the Director of Education with any questions regarding legitimacy. An incomplete must be removed within thirty (30) days. If the incomplete is not removed, the "I" changes to an "F". The course will not be counted in the cumulative grade point average until a final grade is assigned. Students cannot graduate with an "I" grade on their academic transcript.

STUDENT KNOWLEDGE OF REQUIREMENTS

Students are responsible for properly completing their academic programs, being familiar with and understanding all requirements of the school catalog, student handbook, student clinic handbook, maintaining the required grade point average, meeting all program and course requirements, and adhering to school policies, rules, and regulations. The Leave of Absence (LOA) policy allows students to take a leave from their program of study for a period of up to 6 months. Arbor reserves the right to grant leaves of absence at its sole discretion, and, except in the case of unforeseen circumstances, will consider only those requests for leaves of absence that are received prior to the requesting student's last date of attendance. Students on a leave of absence are considered enrolled. An LOA does not provide debt relief from institutional payments if the student has a balance due. cial Leave of Absence Request form (available from the Director of Administrative Services). The student must provide the reason for requesting the leave of absence and indicate their expected date of return to class.

MICHELLE MABE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

On July 3, 2010 Arbor lost one of its most inspirational and beloved leaders, instructors and mentors when Michelle Mabe was taken from us tragically and unexpectedly in an act of domestic violence. In honor of her gracious nature and indelible spirit, the Arbor Educational Community (administration, faculty, staff, students, alumni, and community members) came together to memorialize her life by dedicating the Michelle Mabe Memorial Library. The library is home to a vast array of books ranging in subject matter from business and marketing to energy work and all manner of topics in between. The library is beautifully decorated and open to the public during normal business hours. Books may be checked out by current students and alumni and the facilities may be used by anyone who needs to take a few quiet moments for reflection and meditation. Donations (books or monetary) to the Michelle Mabe Memorial Library can be made by calling 865-450-3330.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, also known as the Buckley Amendment, is designed to protect the privacy of all student registration records. Records specifically affected by this law are maintained in the President's office. The student's academic file, kept in the President's office contains a permanent record which lists courses, credits and grades from Arbor; courses and credits accepted in transfer from other colleges, which contributed to the Arbor diploma; date and kind of diploma awarded; and honors awarded at graduation. The academic file also contains application forms, evaluations, and transcripts from other colleges or high schools. The Rights and Privacy Act requires that the academic files be available for personal review by the student after a formal written request has been communicated to the school. The central purpose of this act is to guarantee the right to examine the contents of personal files and challenge the factual accuracy of the contents or the inclusion of supplementary documents. Any student may examine his or her Arbor file by asking at least one day in advance for an appointment to do so.

STUDENT ACCESS TO FILES

Students have the right to inspect and review their educational records, and may schedule an appointment with the Director of Administrative Services to do so.

TRANSCRIPT REQUESTS

Official transcripts are sent upon receipt of a request by students, former students and graduates who are in good financial standing with the school. Official transcripts are $5.00 each except when transmitted digitally to the Tennessee Massage Licensure Board.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

Student records are confidential, and any information in them may not be released without the student's written permission. There are a limited number of cases where this does not apply, including to school officials with legitimate educational interest, specified officials for audit purposes, and accrediting agencies.

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

Students are expected to demonstrate professional behavior in their interactions with faculty, staff, students and the general public. This professional behavior includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Respect
Arbor attracts a diverse student body and staff. All students, faculty and staff are expected to respect individual differences and beliefs, and to maintain sensitivity for the feelings and ideas of all others on campus. Derogatory comments, verbal abuse or physical abuse will not be tolerated.
2. Responsiveness
Students are expected to respond in a timely fashion to phone calls, requests for information and requests for meetings.
3. Honesty

Such conduct is prohibited. Stalking causes substantial emotional distress in individuals and serves no legitimate purpose.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students must adhere to high standards of scholarship and conduct that will not interfere with the learning process of any other student, the classroom presentation by the teacher, or the progress of the class in general. A student whose conduct reflects discredit upon himself/herself or the school will be subject to suspension and/or termination. The Administration of the school reserves the right, in the exercise of its judgment, to suspend and/or dismiss a student for reasons that include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Failure to conform to the rules and regulations of the school
2. Conduct that reflects unfavorably upon the school or its students
3. Unsatisfactory academic progress
4. Excessive absences or tardiness
5. Failure to pay charges when due is stressed in every class.

3. Breakage - A replacement fee may be charged for any deliberate breakage of equipment.

5. Homework - Required homework assignments are to be turned in when due. Each student should be prepared to devote time daily to home study.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

“Sexual Harassment” is defined as any unwelcomed sexual advance, request for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct where submission to or rejection of such advances, requests or conduct affects a benefit such as terms of employment or continuation of education; or, when such advances, requests or conduct have the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work or education by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive environment. Determining what constitutes sexual harassment depends upon the specific facts and the context in which the conduct occurs. Sexual harassment may take many forms – subtle and indirect or blatant and overt. Arbor will not tolerate sexual harassment and prohibits sexual harassment by school employees and students during any activity associated with the school. All members of the educational community have a responsibility to help maintain an environment that is free from all forms of sexual harassment. Violations of the Sexual Harassment policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including removal from the educational community. Any educational community member who believes this policy has been violated should report the problem to the Dean of Students. If the student complaint involves the Dean of Students, it should be reported to the Director/President. Complaints relating to sexual harassment incidents are to be addressed on an Occurrence Report form and directed immediately to the Office of the President. The results of the investigation are presented to the complainant, and when determined by the school to be appropriate, to the person accused of harassment. Individuals who violate this policy are subject to discipline ranging from a written warning to dismissal. Frivolous or false accusations of sexual harassment have serious consequences on innocent individuals. This institution cautions that such complaints may result in action being taken against the complainant. A copy of the official harassment policy can be found in the student handbook.

DUAL RELATIONSHIPS

The instructor-student relationship is foundational to the educational process. As a matter of sound judgment and professional ethics, faculty members and students have a responsibility to avoid any apparent or actual dual relationships that could potentially create conflict in their responsibilities to the educational community.

Romantic and/or sexual relationships and or friendships between a faculty member and a student have the potential to pose risks to the faculty member, the student, or third parties. In such relationships, voluntary consent by the student is suspect because of the inherently unequal nature of the relationship. A romantic and/or sexual relationship between a faculty member and a student can lead to a complaint of sexual harassment when the student feels that he or she has been exploited. In addition, other faculty members, staff members, or students may express concerns about undue access or advantage, favoritism, restricted opportunities, or unfavorable treatment as a result of the relationship. These concerns are damaging whether the favoritism is real or perceived. They also arise in cases where the relationship between the faculty member and the student remains amicable, as well as in cases that lead to accusations of exploitation. For all these reasons, the school strongly prohibits romantic and/or sexual relationships or friendships between faculty members and students.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The purpose of education is to advance one's own intellectual skills and knowledge and to demonstrate the outcomes of these efforts. An essential and shared value in higher education is presenting one's own work and properly acknowledging that of others. Any violation of this principle constitutes academic dishonesty and is liable to result in disciplinary action. Forms of academic dishonesty include but are not necessarily limited to the following:

- Plagiarism - submitting all or part of another's work as one's own in an academic exercise, such as an examination, computer file, or written assignment. This includes, but is not limited to, submitting papers written by someone else, such as a family member or friend, or downloading parts of, or entire, term papers, from the Internet, and then submitting them as your own work. It also includes use of another's words as one's own, be that paraphrasing or direct quotation, without proper citation.
- Cheating - using or attempting to use unauthorized materials on an examination or assignment, such as using unauthorized texts or notes or improperly obtaining, or attempting to obtain, copies of an examination or answers to an examination. This also includes sharing or receiving content, from exams or quizzes, by way of another student.
- Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - helping another to commit an act of academic dishonesty, such as substituting for an examination, completing an assignment for someone else, or sharing of computer files.
- Fabrication - altering or transmitting, without authorization, academic information or records.
- Multiple Submissions - submitting the same paper/project for credit in multiple classes, without permission of the instructors involved.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Because of the extraordinary standards that Arbor requires from our students an incident of dishonesty will subject the student to stringent disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the program. Upon expulsion, the Director of Education shall then notify the Director of Administrative Services to enter the notation "dismissed for academic dishonesty" on the student's academic record.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Arbor College|School of Massage recognizes the value of a grievance procedure that provides for the timely review of grievances in a fair and practical manner. A grievance or conflict is considered to be any dispute between a student and the school, a student and instructor, or between students. In the event that a student has a specific complaint regarding the school's compliance with statutes, rules, regulations, and/or policies of the Tennessee Higher Education Commission or the Tennessee Massage Licensure Board, he or she is encouraged to work with the President to resolve the matter informally. Although purely personal matters would not ordinarily give rise to a grievance subject to this grievance procedure, any matter that adversely affects the educational community could be the subject of a grievance. Arbor encourages students, instructors and staff members to manage conflicts by meeting individually with the involved person(s) in a spirit of cooperation and resolution, however, if this does not succeed, the involved parties should use the following grievance procedure. The use of good judgment and common sense should be used as your guide. In all cases, a written complaint should be submitted to the president/director of the school at:

Ed Bolden, President/Director
6500 Papermill Drive, Suite 214
Knoxville, Tennessee 37919
Telephone: (865) 450-3330
Email: edbolden@arborcollege.com

Upon receiving the complaint the President/Director, acting as the chief investigating officer, will consult with the appropriate department as follows:

Student Complaints about an Instructor or Student Clinic Coordinator

The Director of Education shall meet with the President/Director to review the complaint. If the student is not willing to meet individually with the involved instructor or coordinator, or if such a meeting did not resolve the conflict, the Director of Education calls a meeting acting as mediator with the student and instructor or coordinator. The Director of Education keeps a written record of this meeting. Only the involved parties are permitted in this meeting (with the exception of the President/School Director). If the meeting doesn't resolve the conflict, the Director of Education presents the situation to the President/Director who determines a resolution. The decision will be reduced to writing within 30 days and a copy will be given to the Student with the original kept in the students permanent file.

Staff Member Complaints about a Student

The Director of Student Clinic Services shall meet with the President to review the complaint. The Director of Student Clinic Services will then meet with the staff member involved. If the staff member is not willing to meet individually with the involved student, or if such a meeting did not resolve the conflict, the Director of Student Clinic Services calls a meeting acting as mediator in a meeting with the student and staff member. The Director of Student Clinic Services keeps a written record of this meeting. Only the involved parties are permitted in this meeting (with the exception of the President/Director). If the student is unwilling to participate in this meeting or if the meeting doesn't resolve the conflict, the Director of Student Clinic Services presents the situation to the President/Director who determines a resolution. The decision will be reduced to writing within 30 days and a copy will be given to the involved parties with the original kept in the students and staff members permanent file.

Student Complaints about another Student

The Director of Student Services shall meet with the President to review the complaint. The Director of Student Services meets with the student filing the complaint. If the student filing the complaint is not willing to meet individually with the other student, or if such a meeting did not resolve the conflict, the Director of Student Services calls a meeting, acting as mediator in a meeting with both students. The Director of Student Services keeps a written record of this meeting. Only the involved parties are permitted in this meeting (with the exception of the President/Director). If the student filing the complaint is unwilling to come to such a meeting, the matter is closed and no further steps are taken. If the other student is unwilling to participate in this meeting or if the meeting doesn't resolve the conflict, the Director of Student Services presents the situation to the President/Director who determines a resolution. The decision will be reduced to writing within 30 days and a copy will be given to the involved parties with the original kept in the students permanent file.

Any person claiming damage or loss as a result of any act or practice by this institution that may be a violation of the Title 49, Chapter 7, Part 20 or Rule Chapter 1520-01-02 may file a complaint with the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Division of Postsecondary State Authorization. The student may contact the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Parkway Towers, Suite 1900, 404 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, Tennessee 37423-0830. Telephone: (615) 741-5293.

INCLEMENT WEATHER AND CLASS CANCELLATIONS

In every situation, both individual and institutional, the decision to cancel classes should be taken very seriously. The reputation of the school and the integrity of the academic programs rely on every class being conducted according to the schedule; also, there are financial ramifications for students when a class is not held.

When predictions of severe weather warrant closing the school/student clinic or delaying the opening of the school/student clinic, every attempt will be made to announce this decision at least two hours in advance, to accommodate those faculty and students who come to campus from a distance. As a rule of thumb but not as an absolute rule, if the Knox County Public School System is closed due to inclement weather, Arbor will be closed for both day and evening classes. If dangerous weather conditions arise, classes may be cancelled at the President's discretion. If you determine that weather conditions in your surrounding area are hazardous or life-threatening use your discretion in traveling. In the event of school closings for inclement weather, you may check local news Channel 6 (WATE) Channel 10 (WBIR) or Channel 8 (WVLT) during their Winter Storm Reports/Local School Closings which streams at the bottom of the television screen. As a service to students, WBIR offers free text alerts by going to <http://www.WBIR.com/news/mobile/text.aspx>. Any school days that are missed due to inclement weather will be made up as soon as possible. Please remember that it is your responsibility to be apprised of official school closings not listed on the academic calendar.

FACULTY AND STAFF

Our faculty and staff come from a variety of massage and healthcare backgrounds, and many have taken the same road you're about to travel. That means they understand your needs and concerns, and they're always ready to assist. Our program is primarily hands-on, allowing you to experience and practice massage techniques during your education. Our faculty and staff are right there with you helping you to develop techniques and encouraging you when there's room for improvement.
